North Campus Housing Options:

Veteran students can choose from our two options for North Campus housing: Affiliated or Traditional Housing. All of our North Campus properties offer the convenience of being centrally located to most academic buildings as well as the Lawrence Dining Hall and Sykes Student Union. All residents of North Campus properties are required to purchase an on campus meal plan which offers the ease and convenience of prepared meals.

Traditional Residence Halls:

Veteran students can choose to apply for a bed space in one of our four North Campus Traditional Residence Halls. Based on availability, Traditional Residence Halls offer a limited number of premium single rooms as well as double rooms. Both Traditional Residence Halls and Affiliated Housing properties are available on a nine-month academic year lease. Please contact Residence Life and Housing at 610-436-3307 or Housing@wcupa.edu to arrange housing in one of the Traditional Halls.

Affiliated Housing (USH):

On North Campus, Affiliated Housing offers four suite-style residence halls, Allegheny Hall, Brandywine Hall, Commonwealth Hall, and University Hall. Based on availability, these communities offer students double and single bedroom suites with semi-private bathrooms that are shared only with your suitemates. A shared living area is available in certain suites and each community provides amenities which can be viewed at www.wcuhousing.com. These housing options, just like traditional halls, are available on a nine-month academic year lease. Leasing information for these facilities is available through University Student Housing, 610-430-4988 or leasing@ushcommunities.org.

All of our housing options are staffed by student RAs as well as professional Residence Life staff, including Resident Directors, Graduate Hall Directors, and Graduate Assistants.

South Campus Housing Options:

Veteran students can choose from two different types of housing on South Campus. Both of these communities are conveniently located in close proximity to Sturzebecker Hall. Veteran students living at either of the apartment communities are not required to purchase a meal plan, but are welcome to if desired.

South Campus Apartment Complex:
