

WEST CHESTER UNIVERSITY
CENTER FOR WOMEN & GENDER EQUITY

Virtual Survivor Support

Non-confidential, non-judgmental space to process, talk through options, and understand referrals

Swipe to meet the staff so you can identify the best support for you.

EMAIL: LMOSVICK@ WCUPA.EDU

Lindsey Mosvick
she/her/hers

Lindsey is the new Associate Director at the Center for Women & Gender Equity. She served as an advocate for campus survivors in a prior role and worked in the domestic violence field for years post-law school graduation. She wants every survivor to know that their feelings are valid.

EMAIL:
TBENSER@ WCUPA.EDU

Mx. Tess
Benser
they/them/theirs

Tess Benser is the Assistant Director of Outreach & Engagement at the Center for Women & Gender Equity. They have experience as a rape crisis line counselor and providing direct HIV prevention services, specifically working with the LGBTQIA+ population, people who inject drugs, and people working in the sex industry. Tess wants all survivors to know that they deserve to be believed.

EMAIL:
SALCIDONIS@ WCUPA.EDU

Dr. Sendy
Alcidonis
she/her/hers

Dr. Alcidonis is honored to serve as the Senior Director of the Center for Women & Gender Equity. She has experience working in a variety of settings as an administrator, researcher, trainer and university instructor. She holds sacred her responsibility to co-create healing spaces grounded in liberation and care.

- Deliver co-curricular programming on gender equity topics, including violence prevention education
- Coordinate Newcombe/Conway/Swan Scholarship awards for Mature Students
- Provide referrals to community resources
- Recruit and train graduate assistants and peer educators

Other Supports & Services