Twist

Julia

flapping, twisting, crashing

need of jet fuel, slashing traveling back in time, mashing never getting the gist broadcasting

bumbling everlasting

Twist

flapping, twisting, crashing

Forest Julia

In a forest of leafy green
covered by a forest screen rabbits bounding by never stopping for a hi!

An owl peeping

always creeping

plants of every type

fruits not yet ripe

branches stretching so tall

no trespassers at all

In a forest of leafy green

covered by a forest screen

In the forest

In the forest

Behind barns and old stone buildings Lies small animals and trails taking you to a familiar place But on those trails were bunnies on the rocks always on high alert when the predators of writers come close

Open fields with four directions two not knowing about the circular paths The twisting tree bare or leaves stands still in the forest

Wild berries that the bunny feasts off but the bunnies predators are back to pick the berries but then enjoy touching and looking at the berries

Me and Jackie
By: Mohammed Khan

"Everybody, I would like you to meet a new member of our team, please welcome Jack Roosevelt Robinson No.42,"

"Are you kidding me," said No.40. This was the Hi, my name is Mohammed Khan.

It was a big change when Robinson came.
He was the first Negro to play in the MLB.

When he came, we were all laughing.
Everybody was mean, we thought we won't win. We even hit him.

But, when we played the Phillies, we won 0 to 2000. NY Yankees, 0 to 1000, finally we won against the Red Soxs 0 to 3000.

So there you have it, Jackie

Was a big change. From being badly treated to famous, he overcame bad things.

After that, no more No. 42.

In the Almost Night

Celia Long

In the almost night

In the star-spangled dark light

In the dusk

In the cricket chorus filled air

The moon lights a hidden forest

In the forest

In a grand old tree

Peeks an owl spy

In the Forest

On a round rock a white rabbit sits under the grand old tree

BUT

Under the treetop canopy

Under the moon-light glow

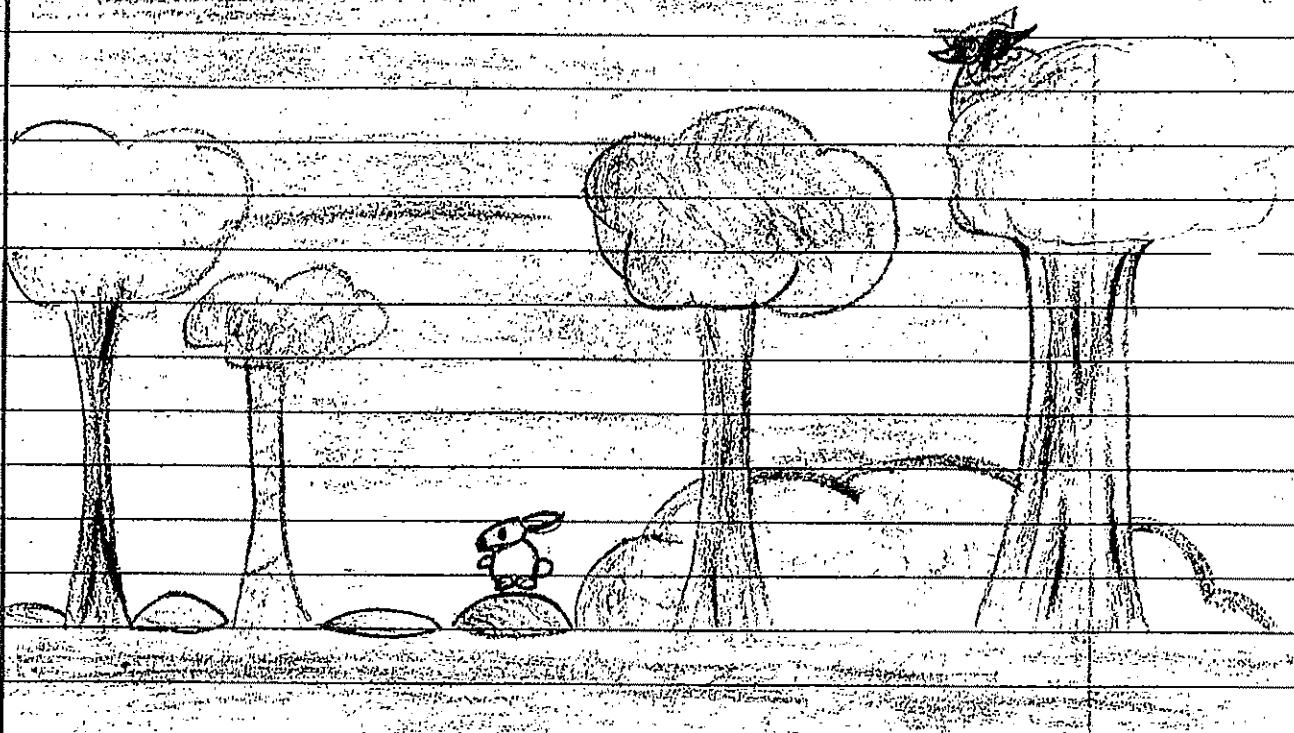

Under the round rocks

Lying still...still...STILL

Is a sleeping mouse

Hidden by a blanket of leaves

Can he be awakened by the birds the next morning?

Fortune to fate

Macey Trexler

A fortune teller's tent,

tells Delphina that there's hope,

To find new beginnings,

11 years into her life,

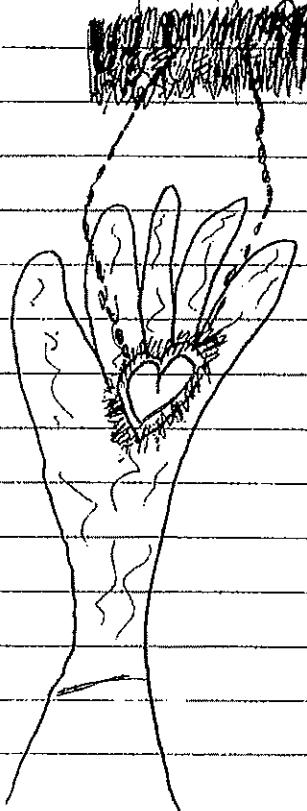

No swirling ball,

No palm reading,

just one look at the necklace,

and many words,

A Fortune teller's tent

Dear Diary This is the 56th time I tried to escape. I don't like this place I hate HATE!!!

Elizabeth's house with almost nothing to eat or drink I'm left starving for weeks. As the smartest of all of Elizabeth's slaves I can read, write, say the whole alphabet, and even count to 100 with my fingers and to 50 without I think I deserve a little more respect from Elizabeth and her family. So, one day I had enough of this nonsense I'm gonna break outta this place. I grab a musket and shoot down the wall and break outta this place house. Though little did I know Elizabeth's house was right next to a police station!! NOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO!!!!

Blackbeard (real name Jonathan Zhang)

Edward Teach, the pirate King

Cagged clothes and that big black beard those sharp swords and powerful guns

Killed many and captured many

Stole the Concorde and renamed it Queen Ann's

Revenge

Though got his head cut off in 1718

as tall as a tree and as strong as a tank

Blackbeard was the true Pirate King

Edward Teach, the Pirate King
