NOMINATION FOR HONORARY DEGREE

Nominee Name: Howard Dodson

Address: The Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture
515 Malcolm X. Boulevard
New York, NY 10037-1801

Profession: Director and Chief of the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture at the New York Public Library

Specify the honorary degree for which the nominee is to be considered:

Doctor of Public Service ~~or~~ Doctor of Humane Letters

Brief Rationale for the nomination:

Howard Dodson is an internationally acclaimed specialist in African-American history and a noted lecturer, educator, and consultant. Since 1984, he has been Chief of the prestigious Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture at the New York Public Library. A 1961 graduate of West Chester State College in Social Studies and English, Mr. Dodson has earned a master's degree in US History and Political Science at Villanova University and is completing a Ph.D. in History at the University of California, Berkley.

In addition to being a leader in the study of Black Culture and the African diaspora, Mr. Dodson has taught at Emory, Shaw, and Columbia Universities, and has served as a consultant for the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities. He was also Executive Director of the Institute of the Black World, worked as both a volunteer and staff member for the Peace Corps, and served as a consultant for the Congressional Black Caucus, Atlanta University, the Library of Congress, and the US Department of Education.

Mr. Dodson's scholarly activities are considerable ranging from books and articles to exhibitions and essays dealing with African American history and culture. In addition, he serves or has served on numerous educational, service, and community boards including the Nation Institute, Tougaloo College, the Apollo Theater Foundation, the Institute for International Education, and the New School for Social Research. Recently, Mr. Dodson was awarded an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree from Adelphi University.

The attached resume provides additional details regarding Mr. Dodson's outstanding contributions to cultural studies and the production and dissemination of knowledge on the history and culture of African and African American peoples. As a result of his scholarship, public service, and commitment to learning, Mr. Dodson has brought recognition to his alma mater and national prominence to the Schomburg Center and himself. He is an articulate spokesperson for racial harmony and a role model for WCU students.
